INNOVATION IS NOT ONE BREAKTHROUGH. RATHER INNOVATION IS AN EXPRESSION OF THE ORGANIZATION'S PRIORITIES AND CAPABILITIES...

-CHRIS COBURN, CHIEF INNOV. OFFICER, PARTNERS HEALTHCARE SYSTEM

OUR THEME: PUSHING BEYOND BOUNDARIES

Boundaries and defining creative solutions within limits is the theme of the Health Professions Network's Fall Conference. Defining our constraints, identifying risk & failure tolerance, pursuing experimentation within our organizations, and planning for the future will all be topics we address this Fall in Columbus, OH.

Let's work through difficult problems, together. What role will allied health professions play?

FALL
CONFERENCE
NOV. 9-11
COLUMBUS, OH

Camaraderie and Collaborations in Columbus

HPN leadership is thrilled for our second in-person meeting of 2022—here are all the relevant protocols and details:

COVID Safety Requirements |

To join us in-person, we will require either:

- Proof of COVID vaccination
- OR, negative PCR test result within 72 hrs of November 9.

Complimentary Room Nights |

Our hosts, Experience Columbus, are graciously providing our first 40 live registrants with complimentary accommodation at one of our partner hotels, and a full schedule of opportunities to network and familiarize ourselves with beautiful Columbus, Ohio!

Our Hosts & Partners

Our host for this meeting is Experience Columbus.

We are certain to enjoy the finest venues and explore the most meeting-friendly spots the city has to offer.

As Columbus is Ohio's Capital City, we will also enjoy the environment that comes with a vibrant city – there is the Columbus Zoo and Aquarium, Franklin Park Conservatory and Center of Science and Industry to name a few of the top attractions for which Columbus is known.

There are fabulous restaurants and great neighborhoods to explore as well. While our meeting is November 9-11, you can plan to arrive early and/or stay late to get the best out of a great Capital!
